

Ravenscliffe High School and Sports College

If Your Child is Unwell - Checklist

If anyone in your family has symptoms and is going for a test the family should isolate until the test result is received. If negative the child can return to school. If a positive test result is received – all your family should self isolate for fourteen days from the start of the symptoms.